

EXECUTIVE REPORT ON PARDONS,
COMMUTATIONS OF SENTENCE, AND REPRIEVES

DECISIONS FOR THE PERIOD
January 3, 2011 through December 31, 2011

BY GOVERNOR EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR CONCERNING
PARDONS, COMMUTATIONS OF SENTENCE, AND REPRIEVES

To the Members of the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

In accordance with article V, section 8, subdivision (a) of the California Constitution, Penal Code section 4807, and Government Code section 12017, I submit to you a report on the pardons, commutations of sentence, and reprieves issued during 2011. I pardoned 21 people and did not grant any commutations of sentence or reprieves. I have included copies of each pardon.

Sincerely,

Edmund G. Brown Jr.

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Sandena Rae Bader

Sandena Rae Bader, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about January 17, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Yuba, for the crime of criminal conspiracy. She served 90 days in jail and three years on probation. She was discharged on January 17, 1986, having completed her sentence.

Sandena Bader has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Placer, an order dated January 18, 2011, evidencing that since her release, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Sandena Bader has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Sandena Bader a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Elizabeth Jean Clark

Elizabeth Jean Clark, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about August 3, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of sale of cocaine. She served nine months inpatient status and three years, seven months, five days outpatient status. She was discharged on December 7, 1994, having completed her sentence.

Elizabeth Clark has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, an order dated June 21, 2007, evidencing that since her release from prison, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Elizabeth Clark has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Elizabeth Clark a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

Debra Bowen
DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Ernest Johnnie Everett

Ernest Johnnie Everett, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 14, 1984, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served three years on probation. He was discharged on November 14, 1987, having completed his sentence.

Ernest Everett has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, an order dated March 5, 2008, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Ernest Everett has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Ernest Everett a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

Debra Bowen
DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Eric Francis Grow

Eric Francis Grow, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 21, 1975, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Solano, for the crime of sale or transportation of marijuana. He served two years on probation. He was discharged on July 21, 1977, having completed his sentence.

Eric Grow has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, an order dated June 23, 2011, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Eric Grow has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Eric Grow a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

Debra Bowen
DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Roy Matthew Hallstein

Roy Matthew Hallstein, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 20, 1988, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served one year on probation. He was discharged on May 20, 1989, having completed his sentence.

Roy Hallstein has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated November 2, 2007, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Roy Hallstein has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Roy Hallstein a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

David Katz

David Katz, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 22, 1966, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sonoma, for the crime of transportation and sales of dangerous drugs. He served five years on probation. He was discharged on September 22, 1971, having completed his sentence.

David Katz has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sonoma, an order dated November 14, 2005, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David Katz has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David Katz a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

Debra Bowen

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

John Paul Morello

John Paul Morello, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 20, 1987, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Yuba, for the crime of drug possession. He served three years on probation. He was discharged on July 20, 1990, having completed his sentence.

John Morello has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sutter, an order dated April 15, 2011, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, John Morello has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to John Morello a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

Debra Bowen

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Andre Mouton

Andre Mouton, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 19, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Alameda, for the crime of second degree burglary. He served seven months and 27 days in prison and one year and 29 days on parole. He was discharged on August 29, 1992, having completed his sentence.

Andre Mouton has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Alameda, an order dated March 27, 2007, evidencing that since his release from prison, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his prison term and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Andre Mouton has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Andre Mouton a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

Debra Bowen
DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Marion Edward Murphy, Jr.

Marion Edward Murphy, Jr., a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 11, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Francisco, for the crime of receiving known stolen property. He served six months and nine days in prison and one year and one month on parole. He was discharged on March 14, 1985, having completed his sentence.

Marion Murphy has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Calaveras, an order dated August 8, 2006, evidencing that since his release from prison, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his prison term and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Marion Murphy has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Marion Murphy a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Steven Mark Newbery

Steven Mark Newbery, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 21, 1980, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of transportation and sales of cocaine. He served three years, two months, and 27 days on probation. He was discharged on April 21, 1983, having completed his sentence.

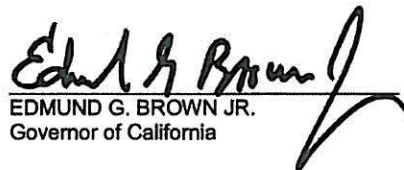

Steven Newbery has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated February 23, 2007, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Steven Newbery has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Steven Newbery a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Tawana Nichole Nix

Tawana Nichole Nix, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about January 13, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, for the crime of manufacturing methamphetamine. She served five years, three months, and 11 days on probation. She was discharged on April 24, 1999, having completed her sentence.

Tawana Nix has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Shasta, an order dated June 19, 2006, evidencing that since her release, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Tawana Nix has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

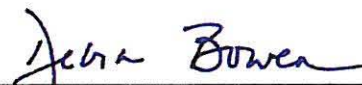

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Tawana Nix a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Michael James Olivieri

Michael James Olivieri, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 1, 1976, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served three years on probation. He was discharged on June 1, 1979, having completed his sentence.

Michael Olivieri has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated October 31, 2008, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael Olivieri has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

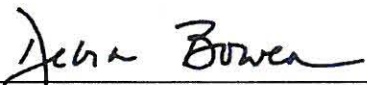

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michael Olivieri a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Ramon Gonzalez Palacios

Ramon Gonzalez Palacios, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 12, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of sale of marijuana. He served three years on probation. He was discharged on October 12, 1996, having completed his sentence.

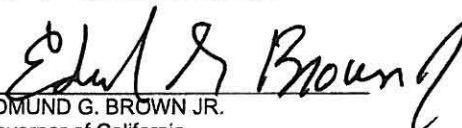

Ramon Palacios has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated September 28, 2006, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Ramon Palacios has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Ramon Palacios a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Jung Won Park

Jung Won Park, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about February 17, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of second-degree burglary. She served nine months in prison and one year and one month on parole. She was discharged on December 19, 1984, having completed her sentence.

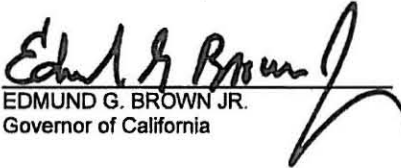

Jung Park has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated October 23, 2003, evidencing that since her release from prison, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her prison term and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Jung Park has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jung Park a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Craig Michael Robinson

Craig Michael Robinson, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 26, 1988, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crimes of Transportation of Controlled Substances, Sales or Transportation of Marijuana/Hashish, and Possession of Controlled Substance for Sale (Health and Safety Code §§ 11359, 11360(a), 11378). He served one year on probation. He was discharged on April 26, 1989, having completed his sentence.

Craig Robinson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated December 8, 2010, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Craig Robinson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

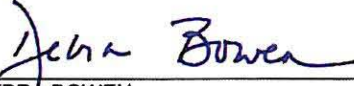

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Craig Robinson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Michael Joseph Roy

Michael Joseph Roy, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 3, 1980, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tulare, for the crime of possession of a narcotic controlled substance for sale. He served one year and seven months on probation. He was discharged on May 3, 1982, having completed his sentence.

Michael Roy has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tulare, an order dated October 16, 2001, evidencing that since his release from prison, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael Roy has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michael Roy a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Matthew Allan Tregidga

Matthew Allan Tregidga, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 16, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, for the crime of possession of cocaine. He served three years on probation. He was discharged on March 16, 1995, having completed his sentence.

Matthew Tregidga has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated February 28, 2003, evidencing that since his release from probation, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Matthew Tregidga has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

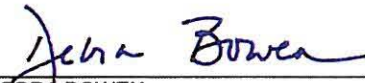

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Matthew Tregidga a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Laritha Dorothy Vaughn

Laritha Dorothy Vaughn, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about November 19, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of selling cocaine. She served two years, two months and eight days on probation. She was discharged on January 27, 1995, having completed her sentence.

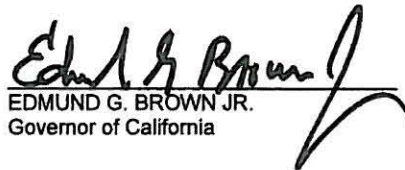

Laritha Vaughn has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated April 20, 2000, evidencing that since her release from probation, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Laritha Vaughn has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Laritha Vaughn a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Ludwig Arturo Westphal

Ludwig Arturo Westphal, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 4, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sonoma, for the crime of transportation and sale of methamphetamine. He served a three years on probation. He was discharged on January 4, 1996, having completed his sentence.

Ludwig Westphal has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sonoma, an order dated January 18, 2006, evidencing that since his release, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Ludwig Westphal has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Ludwig Westphal a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

Debra Bowen

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Christopher Asher Witham

Christopher Asher Witham, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 10, 1984, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, for the crime of selling cocaine. He served five years on probation. He was discharged on February 9, 1989, having completed his sentence.

Christopher Witham has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, an order dated April 21, 2004, evidencing that since his release from prison, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Christopher Witham has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Christopher Witham a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

Debra Bowen
DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

Dale Rudy Yugo

Dale Rudy Yugo, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 7, 1981, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Mateo, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years on probation. He was discharged on July 7, 1984, having completed his sentence.

Dale Yugo has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Solano, an order dated July 25, 2003, evidencing that since his release from prison, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Dale Yugo has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Dale Yugo a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

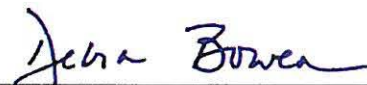

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of December, 2011.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State