Re: Comment for WC Docket 12-375

Dear Chairman Wheeler:

The Human Rights Defense Center (HRDC) respectfully submits this comment for WC Docket No. 12-375 as a follow up to our comment posted to this Docket July 15, 2015 regarding the lack of transparency by Inmate Calling Service (ICS) providers and the critical need for the Commission to address this issue as part of comprehensive ICS reform.

As noted in our initial comment, there is almost a total lack of transparency on the part of both ICS providers and the government agencies from which they secure their monopoly contracts. Contracts between ICS providers and detention facilities are public documents and should be accessible to consumers through each state's public records laws. The reality, however, is that state agencies often create obstacles to inhibit the public records process that require consumers and other organizations to unnecessarily expend time and money to obtain records designated by law to be "public" records. We further noted that in a letter dated April 6, 2015, the Illinois DOC summarily rejected our request for public records including ICS contracts and documents related to commission kickbacks as being "unduly burdensome."¹ As a result, we have been required to retain counsel and initiate legal action in order to obtain the public documents we requested, which include the ICS contract currently in effect at the Illinois Department of Corrections as well as documents that reflect the ICS rates, ancillary fees, and kickback data². Attachment 1 is a copy of the Complaint filed in this action.

² Prison Legal News v. Illinois Department of Corrections, 2015-CH-11292, Cook County Chancery Court

To remedy these shortcomings, we request that the Commission require all ICS providers to post their contracts with detention facilities on their websites where they are publicly available. They should also be required to post the annual itemized amounts they pay to government agencies as well as related law enforcement and corrections associations such as the National Sheriffs' Association, American Correctional Association, American Jail Association, etc. in exchange for monopoly ICS contracts. This includes money paid as commissions, donations, campaign contributions, in-kind equipment or services, and related payments. These disclosures should be made within 30 days of each payment made.

Sincerely,

Paul Wright
Executive Director, HRDC

COMPLAINT

NOW COMES Plaintiff, PRISON LEGAL NEWS, by its undersigned attorneys, LOEVY & LOEVY, and brings this Freedom of Information Act suit to force Defendant ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS to produce information about charges for prison inmate services and how IDOC may be profiting from them. The information is of significant public interest and PLN intends to use the information to expose IDOC’s practices and to advocate for reform before the Federal Communications Commission during ongoing rulemaking. This public interest substantially outweighs the alleged “burden” on IDOC to collect and produce this information. In support of its Complaint, PLN alleges:

INTRODUCTION

1. Pursuant to the fundamental philosophy of the American constitutional form of government, it is the public policy of the State of Illinois that all persons are entitled to full and complete information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts and policies of those who represent them as public officials and public employees consistent with the terms of the Illinois Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”). 5 ILCS 140/1.

2. All public records of a public body are presumed to be open to inspection or copying. Any public body that asserts that a record is exempt from disclosure has the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that it is exempt. 5 ILCS 140/1.2.

3. While public bodies may deny requests deemed “unduly burdensome,” the burden of compliance must outweigh the public interest in disclosure. 3 ILCS 140/3(g).

4. ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS has violated FOIA by claiming that records showing the costs for inmate services and the extent to which IDOC profits from them is insufficiently important to require IDOC to look for and produce a modest number of responsive records.

5. Upon information and belief, IDOC has denied PLN’s requests not because of the alleged burden but because IDOC knows that PLN will use the information to expose profiteering at the expense of the incarcerated and their families.

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff PRISON LEGAL NEWS is a project of the Human Rights Defense Center, a not-for-profit, Washington charitable corporation under IRS Code § 501(c)(3), with offices in Lake Worth, Florida. PLN publishes Prison Legal News, a monthly journal of prison news and analysis. Among other activities, PLN investigates exploitation of inmates and their families by jails and prisons, publicizes its findings, and advocates for reform.

7. Defendant ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS is an Illinois public body with offices in Chicago, IL.

BACKGROUND

8. A large and lucrative industry exists for the provision of essential services to inmates, including telephone services, video visitation, electronic messaging, funds transfer, commissary, book ordering, and others.

9. Despite the well-documented importance of inmates maintaining relationships with the outside world, see, e.g., Procunier v. Martinez, 416 U.S. 396, 412-13 (1974), and despite the fact that most inmates and their families are of limited means, the rates for these key services that are charged to inmates and their families are too often exorbitant.

10. While IDOC is hiding its current rate information, data PLN obtained in 2013 showed that IDOC had among the highest phone rates in the country.

11. Jails and prisons frequently receive a portion of the proceeds collected from inmates and their families from the service providers (who are selected by the prisons and jails).

12. In 2011, PLN co-founded the national Campaign for Prison Phone Justice. In 2013, the Minority Media and Telecommunications Council awarded the Campaign its Digital Pioneer for Social Justice Award.

13. PLN uses inmate service data to support its public education and advocacy efforts. For example, PLN champions for state and federal policies that would rein in the exorbitant phone rates that prisons charge many inmates. In July 2014, PLN staff provided data and testimony at a Federal Communications Commission workshop about capping prison phone rates and related issues. Months later, the FCC ordered a number of prison phone service reforms. The national news media have reported on PLN's work in this area dozens of times in recent years, including USA Today, The Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, Rolling Stone, The Seattle Times, the Tennessean and various online and broadcast reports.

14. PLN routinely seeks and receives from other departments of correction exactly the information sought in the requests at issue here.

15. PLN will use the information obtained through the requests to educate the public about this issue and to advocate before the FCC and elsewhere.

PLN'S FOIA REQUESTS AND IDOC'S IMPROPER DENIALS

16. On March 27, 2015, PLN made 24 FOIA requests to IDOC seeking contracts, payments from services providers to IDOC, and rate and fee information for various services provided to inmates and their families. A true and correct copy of the requests is attached as Exhibit A.

17. On April 6, 2015, IDOC asserted, under FOIA Section 3(g), that the requests were unduly burdensome. A true and correct copy of the response is attached as Exhibit B.

18. On June 15, 2015, PLN responded to IDOC's undue burden claim, explaining that: (1) each of the 24 requests must be separately considered, contrary to IDOC's aggregation of the requests; (2) none of the requests are categorical, and so Section 3(g) is inapplicable; (3) all of the records pertain to the receipt or use of public funds and therefore are per se non-exempt under FOIA; (4) the requests were not nearly as broad as IDOC claimed; and (5) the public interest in disclosure (which was completely ignored in IDOC's undue burden assertion) is substantial and outweighs the burden of production, but in any event, PLN would agree to give IDOC 30 days to produce the records instead of the statutorily required five days. A true and correct copy of PLN's response is attached as Exhibit C.

19. After IDOC failed to respond to PLN's June 15 email, PLN contacted IDOC's Legal Counsel on July 23, 2015, in hopes of resolving the requests. Less than 40 minutes later, IDOC replied, stating: "I disagree with your assessment of 3(g) and I decline your request to reconsider." A true and correct copy of the email exchange is included in Exhibit C.

COUNT I – VIOLATION OF FOIA BY IDOC

20. The above paragraphs are incorporated by reference.
21. ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS is a public body under FOIA.
22. The requested records are public records of IDOC.

ELECTRONICALLY FILED
7/27/2015 8:30 AM
2015-CH-11292
PAGE 5 of 14

23. IDOC has refused to produce the requested records on the basis of undue burden.

24. Production of the records is not unduly burdensome.

25. IDOC has willfully and intentionally violated FOIA at least for the reasons that, (1) upon information and belief, IDOC refuses to produce the records because it fears negative press or adverse regulatory action, not because it would truly be unduly burdensome, and (2) IDOC's undue burden claim is objectively unreasonable and lacks any good faith legal basis.

WHEREFORE, PLN asks that the Court:

- i. in accordance with FOIA Section 11(f), afford this case precedence on the Court's docket except as to causes the Court considers to be of greater importance, assign this case for hearing and trial at the earliest practicable date, and expedite this case in every way;
- ii. declare that IDOC has violated FOIA;
- iii. order IDOC to produce the requested records;
- iv. enjoin IDOC from withholding non-exempt public records under FOIA;
- v. order IDOC to pay civil penalties;
- vi. award PLN reasonable attorneys' fees and costs;
- vii. award such other relief the Court considers appropriate.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

Attorneys for Plaintiff

Re: Freedom of Information Act Request 150403046

Dear Mr. Wright:

This is in response to your request to the Illinois Department of Corrections (“IDOC”) for information pursuant to the Illinois Freedom of Information Act, 5 ILCS 140/1, et seq.

You have requested many different documents as part of your 24-part request. The subject matter of the various request are very diverse and said records are kept in several different locations. The documents would need to be obtained from dozens of different units within IDOC.

Your request is unduly burdensome. Please limit your request to manageable proportions. Once we receive your refined request, we will be better able to determine if we can provide documents responsive to your request [5 ILCS 140/3(g)].

Please submit your refined request, using the above-referenced FOIA number.

Sincerely,

Millicent Bliesener

I represent Paul Wright and Prison Legal News, a project of the nonprofit Human Rights Defense Center, in connection with the attached FOIA request. Please direct all future correspondence on this matter to me. We disagree that the requests are unduly burdensome and ask you to reconsider.

We disagree that IDOC may aggregate the 24 requests together in determining whether the request is unduly burdensome. Each of the 24 requests must be separately considered. Further, none of the requests call for all records falling within a category, but rather, seek discrete records. As such, Section 3(g) cannot apply. And regardless, the requested records all pertain to the receipt, obligation, and/or use of public funds, and therefore are subject to disclosure without exception. 5 ILCS 140/2.5; Ill. Const. Art. VIII, Sec. 1(c).

It also appears that you are misconstruing the requests. As should be clear from the requests, we seek, for telephone services, video visitation, electronic mail, fund transfers, commissary, package services, and book ordering, the following records: contracts, records showing the payments received by IDOC from the providers, records showing the rates, and records showing the fees. The requests do not seek every record related to these contracts or services, but only these narrow and discrete records. The requests can likely be satisfied by producing the contract documents, financial records showing payments from the providers to IDOC, and policies or similar documents showing the rates and fees. We have obtained this information many many other state DOCs without incident and have received similar information from IDOC in the past.

Finally, Section 3(g) applies only if the burden outweighs the public interest in disclosure and your response fails to address the public interest. There is a significant public interest in evaluating these issues as part of a local and national debate that outweighs any burden.

We ask that IDOC reconsider its position and let me know either way in the next five business days. We are willing to grant IDOC 30 calendar days from today to produce the records if it commits to doing so within the next five business days. Please email me any time with questions or to set up a time to talk, if needed. Please conduct all communications on this requests through email and not the mail.

Thank you,
