Nichols Is Not To Be Charged In a Killing

Chronicle News Services

The man involved in the June 15 death of his nephew will not be charged, a spokesman for the Oklahoma County District Attorney's Office, said.

Kevin Nichols, 41, will not be charged in the incident that resulted in the death of Jason Nichols, 21.

Jason Nichols died at a city hospital after fighting with family members (including his uncle, Kevin Nichols) and with policemen. Officers sprayed him with pepper spray and zapped him with a Taser, a weapon that immobilizes victims with an electrical current.

The medical examiner determined that Jason Nichols died of head trauma suffered during a fight with his uncle.

Police went to the home after Kevin Nichols reported that his nephew was drunk and combative.
