

Candles,  lessons, a candy dish,  , a ring

What type of a ring was it?

Ah, white gold and sapphire.

Is that the one that we had...

No – that's yellow gold

Okay – where did that ring go? What'd she give you the first time?

I don't know where it is.

Ok. When did this ring come about?

This ring came about – she had it – she gave it to me on one of our meetings in Issaquah – one of our day meetings. Well, I think it was a little later in the day meeting, because we stay at the Holiday Inn there in Issaquah.

Do you have the date?

Not specifically.

Do you remember which room number you were in?

Nope

Top floor, bottom floor?

Second floor

Second floor?

Yup.

She pay for the room there, too?

No, I did.

You did?

Uh huh

Did you pay for it in cash, do you remember?

Cash – they still have me in their computer, there – I know I am, cause I remember thinking

What name did you use?

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Um hum. We stayed there two or three times. One time we stayed there, they comped us the room, because the time before, I went in the room and Steph brought extra pillows so I went to put the pillows on the bed and there were no sheets. Maybe the help people made the bed real quick, you know, to get the room done, whatever, but there were no sheets. But I was like can I get some sheets? And they were real nice and they gave us one extra night. And I used it for next time.

Ok. Is there only one Holiday Inn, there?

Yup

This one?

Uh huh

Is it like an Express, or is it a regular Holiday Inn?

Um, it's on the same side as the freeway – there's a Red Robin down the street from Bethany Hill(?) And, um, I think Paul  was there. You know what? *****

Ok. And, so she didn't like you seeing her any more? So what happened?

Oh – well Stephanie had told – Stephanie was making it real clear that I'm going to leave Ellensburg – the bitch didn't want to do it – this long distance thing didn't work – she wanted me to live in Tacoma or near my mom's or something like that  and, um, we began to argue about it a lot because I was in a pretty good  I was a little bit leery about being on the Westside – I felt like I wasn't ready yet to be that close to my old stomping grounds.

Did she ever made you any threat – you move over, or...?

What she told me was, when after [REDACTED] called her and said, [REDACTED] called her at home and said, do you know who I am? I sat right there. I had no option. And she said, this is [REDACTED]  do you know who I am, but I don't know who you are. And she said, Steph, I know who you are, I know where you work – if you call my home again or talk to [REDACTED] again, I'm going to contact your work  tell [REDACTED]. And, ah, then we went to e-mail pretty quickly after that.

Oh, so she did break it off right away

Uh uh

You e-mailed back and forth?

Yeah

And you also told an earlier time there were e-mails to your mom's house, also, right?

No – my mom's – I had my mom - I forwarded them to my mother to save them.

Ok

Because I felt like

Ok emails to you from her, and you sent them to your mom

Yes, I felt that, it came to a point where I felt like I was being a little bit harassed. Now I told her, look, I'm not going to call you any more, I'm staying with [REDACTED] blah, blah, blah, and she told me that if I didn't get my, you know, self to that side of the mountains, that one horse town, she called it, that my life could get complicated. And she would tell me specifically what my CCO, Simon Barr, would write in my chronos. Stephanie would tell me specifically what he just wrote and try to show me that she was still able to access my information – in fact, I think the biggest way I convinced him that this was happening, because, when you know, you're me, my credibility isn't very good  And, um, I told him one day, let me tell you, Simon, what you wrote about me yesterday. And he sat back and, you are? he said. Alright, go ahead, and I told him exactly what he had just written about me on the computer. And he said, that's it – we're telling, we're calling somebody, we need to talk to Olympia – whatever. He was very encouraging – he wanted her walked off the premises.

So why didn't that happen?

Well, cause I wouldn't give her name.

So you never told him her name?

No – he never knew her name. But, um, he's a good guy – he's a good man. He was a real dick to me when I first got there, you know, but, he after over a year of clean UAs and doing things to how he wanted me to do them, I got a little bit of respect for him, you know.

And that's the way it all ends?

Well, I'll tell you how it ended is that I think it was September

'05?

Yes. And I think it was the 5th. It was a Saturday night, I stayed over with Stephanie in [REDACTED] – it was the 5th or the 6th – it was a weekend. I stayed with her – she made it crystal clear – you know, I was going to stay with her, whatever we had to do – she was going to look for another job if she had to – she didn't care. And, ah, I left her house and called her from a 7-11 by her house -  - and told her I couldn't do it, I wasn't going to be back. She told me to come back to the apartment. And I told her no, because we're arguing. You know, it gets complicated. And she told me do not return  my apartment. You come back here, I'll be right there... Anyway, she made it clear at that time she was an angry woman. She made – she – I felt like I couldn't believe what she said – I couldn't believe she would ever call my work or [REDACTED]'s work – I didn't think she'd ever do that – but she said she would. She said she'd make our lives come to a screeching halt and she had the power to do that.

Did she?

She did. The next day was a Monday [REDACTED] came home from work, crying and upset, and said that bitch called my work.

What do you think she told them?

She told them that she was gay, and a felon, and everything else, and in Ellensburg, I think they were more concerned with the gay than they were with the felon. Small town and all, they were not happy about it a bit, and they fired her. And then we, I worked for the same place, so of course, I'll never return to work either, and we immediately relocated to Everett. I only told Simon why, tell him why we were doing it, and that we wanted to put both our parents, their addresses, because we didn't want to kill the address and we just kind of ran away.

So did [REDACTED] boss actually tell her that this person made the call then? Or did they say somebody made it just out of the blue?

Yeah – they didn't give a name. I'm sure she didn't call and say this is Stephanie Aguirre, you know, but... That's how it happened.

Then you came over on this side,

Yeah – it wasn't long before I, ah, you know, relapsed with her using cocaine.

So you haven't talked to her since that day? That's September 5th?

Nope.

Have you had any e-mails after that day, or is that pretty much it?

It feels like that's it.

 that e-mail address which she used which surfaced, aol, what she did for her alphas, yadda, yadda, yadda

Yeah, I can tell you one of them was [REDACTED] with e on the end, 39 at aol [REDACTED] - no [REDACTED] - let me write it down - no [REDACTED] - if I'm wrong, it would be 39. It seems like 37 - that's how old she was then. Let's see, how old is she now...she was born February 22, '55 - that's right, ok, [REDACTED] - yeah, that's it right there.

How many times did you guys use drugs together?

Ah,  I'd say probably every time

 every time or

Yup

Nope

And so she * the cocaine with you?

She had - no - she eluded to the fact - it's so funny when you're in my shoes, cause you hate to say a damn thing, cause you just know they'll think you're lying, and you know, it's like who cares? She had enquired about cocaine one time and I'll tell you what - it's the only time in my life I just said no, because I'm not going there - I knew for me, if I'm in cocaine, I don't want high fives, go and talk to you - I don't want nothing - it's just all about cocaine. So I knew that that wouldn't be the end of it. You know, and so, I told her no. Cause she wanted me to go, she wanted to get some. And that was at her place in [REDACTED]

Now the marijuana - she usually brought that along with her?

I never did. Never had it, never bought it, never got it.

Did she ever say where she got it?

I know damn well where she got it  her kid

Was he selling it, or was he buying it?

Yeah, her and the teenage boy went and got it from somebody I think named Mike.

Ok. Now, when she was with you, was she with anyone else during that time?

She was with Gordon – Debra Gordon. And like at a time that we stopped visiting for a little while, you know, and things kind of  and she began to see Debra Gordon, who was very abusive *****

No *****

Well, not that they'll tell me

Did she say – was she married before?

Yes. And her ex-husband I think works in [REDACTED] or somewhere – I'm not sure where he works.

And that's who the younger boy's named after?

Yes

So you want to tell us anything about the other officers at the institution?

 Besides just  for crap, yeah. Mainly their love life drama, you know. Nothing that's probably already out anyway, so if you aren't very discreet, but, um, I do know that, I do know that I called the institution to talk to, I don't know who I talked to one time, and was pretty nasty about the bruises I found on Stephanie one day that were from Debra Gordon. And I called and left a message for Debra Gordon. Fair – she wouldn't know it was me – she had no idea.

When you guys were at the facility, did you guys ever do anything inappropriate?

Just talk

You didn't touch hands or *****

Ah, we, in one clear office, she'd hold my hand or something like that, you know, I spent a lot of time up in her office, I know that. Are we in  I think there's something there, too. I like her so much I think  shit and I think that she probably  I remember one time specifically, Arlene just almost caught us you know, kind of holding each other, because I cleaned her office and she's [REDACTED] everything, you know, like anything chemicals – none of that – it was  and I was dusting in her office and it was too much chemical, so her and Arlene were in the – you know between the office and the hallway – they were sitting out there like fumigated – so I re-cleaned with this water for the smell, but when Arlene came over and then she says, get your  get me a bottle of wine, you know, because she wants to camp out and have a little picnic in the hallway, there. And, um, she came over at first, I thought, I wasn't sure if she walked in on something or not – but she never of course said anything, and she  probably that I'm  , so

Did you guys ever take photos with each other when you were out in the community? Videos, photos...

No, we do have ah, I know her daughter took pictures of us one time at the apartment

But nothing that you have?

Nothing that I have

That your mom took or anything like that?

Uh uh

You said your mom, her husband, your aunt – all those people have met her

Yes

And had interactions with her

Oh, yeah, several times

And to the best of your knowledge, your mom kept all your e-mails you sent to her for safekeeping, or...

Um, I don't think, I know for a fact she didn't keep all of them, because I asked her about it one time, when I was considering talking to Mr. Baxter about getting some help with it, cause I felt like I was in over my head.

I think *****

What?

I think initially you said you have some *****

Sure – and she's pretty smart with the computer, so she can retrieve it somehow. Um, I know that, ok, then I can tell you another thing, too – let me tell you about this - is that we had another emailing thing through hotmail – that can't be hard to get a hold of and she was [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] what?

[REDACTED] ****

And I was [REDACTED] and that's how we wrote each other – Irish and Greek  that was our little code – real slick. But, that was our hotmail account because she didn't want to use that [REDACTED] any more.

I'm surprised that she hasn't brought you in anything, I mean,  if you're there, and...

I know

Need something...

Never asked her for a thing.

No money? She never brought you money? Or sent any money in or anything?

Nope

No cigarette?

Nothing – and I smoke  cigarettes – you know I smoke every *****
But no, I never asked her for anything.

Did she have any weird bite marks or anything – tattoos or something

Yeah, yeah – she's got some kind of butterfly or something down here on her

You're pointing to, what the lower back? Or upper...

Right above the thigh, yeah. And she's got of course, some  and she's got, um Scars or anything? Did she have any operations?

Well, yeah. You know, she had a little operation *****

Breast augmentation type?

Yeah

Ok

When did she have that? Is that old, or...

Old. Yeah

Can you think of a fight that you had like in a restaurant, or a bar, or something like that maybe people might remember something like that? Some sort of argument that you all had in a bar?

No – the  was I have told somebody – the reality was they were told to be quiet.

Right – that was in Moses Lake  Holiday Inn  A couple other mischievous side notes – is that I know now she, she was driving a Sebring at the time when I first met her – or I was talking to  cause in fact, her mom had the same cars then  you know, Sebring.  had the Explorer – a Ford Explorer – Eddie Bauer edition. She has that now and that's what we drive in most of the time. Let's see, her mom had given her this old Chrysler New Yorker – she had that – we never drove it  this is pretty good information. And, her mom lives in Lynnwood, her dad lives in Lake Stevens, kind of near my mom, and her brother is Wayne.

 stay at her place – it is a nightmare – that's why I never wanted to be at her place – I like to stay in a hotel – you know, if her kids live with her or not – I don't give a damn, I don't want to be at her place because of the damn snake.

She has a snake?

The boy and the snake – Mindy. A big one.

A constrictor type?

Some shit. Oh, my God.

Did she take her kids to the hotel sometimes?

No, no, never.

Ok.  the furniture she had?

Yeah, sure, I can remember everything she's got. Ok – we talking about her house, or her apartment?

Where she lived the last time you saw her.

Ok. The apartment – you come into her apartment, I believe [REDACTED] the bottom, you go in the apartment, you take a left, there's a kitchen there, the dining room's right here, the dining room table, just a basic wood dining room table...

Oak? Light oak? Dark wood?

Yeah – light oak.

Ok

And then right in front of me, she had a couch and a loveseat, and they were both pretty nonsignificant – they're covered with blankets, and, um – oh, the couch folds out.

Sofa bed?

Sofa bed or futon or something – [REDACTED] slept on that a lot. The boy. And, ah...

Was there a bed? What kind of a bed did she have?

She's just got a regular bed

Was it a wood bed, a brass bed?

It's just a bed – there's nothing descript about it at all – no headboard, no nothing.

Oh, there's no headboard?

No, nope – in fact, when she had that, only at the apartment, was it on a frame. When she had it at the house, it was just on the floor – the mattress was. You know, the bedroom was nasty (?) at the house. At the apartment, she had it cleaner - I think they were expecting me that time.

TVs *****

Yes, she's got a TV in the bedroom on the dresser

Big, small one?

Ah, let's see – this size

About 24" – standard

 a 26" TV probably in her room, then she's got an, ah, let's see, I'd say a 32" TV in her living room

Sitting on a table, sitting in an armoire....

It's got a  you know. And then the bedroom... she had a, ok [REDACTED] bedroom, her bedroom was in the back corner, and she has a bathroom in her bedroom and a window there, which she said Debra Gordon would come to that window a lot. So I thought, neat. Yeah, it just seemed weird to me, I always felt really uncomfortable in her bedroom. And right outside her bedroom, right across the hall, was [REDACTED] room – the youngest boy, and all  in there, and then other kids were here – oh, the last time I was there was, um, oh, I installed locks on her bedroom door -  where you lock it a lock you go like this to – it was really complicated – for something that was supposed to be really easy, it was really a drag.

Did anybody in the neighborhood ever see you over at that place there? In that apartment? The next door neighbors, or

No. There were kids – I'd play with little kids there sometimes and it'd always make her nervous. So I tried to not do that. I like little kids - *****

Did she talk about being nervous to  get caught and DOC *****?

Yes. Yes.

Did she name any other DOC people that also lived in this area –did she ever say well, this person lives right down there?

Yeah – she did name the people in Lacey, and I have to leave – as soon as I leave, I'll remember everything.

That's fine – you can write it all down and we can talk again.

Ok. In my room I have pretty extensive notes, because I expected to see you at some point. I've been keeping track with things I can on some things  I'll see mom on Monday, I'll let her...

You let her know I'd like to talk to her as soon as I could

I'll have her call you right away.

I'll make my calendar around hers

Ok

Anything else right now?

That's it for right now.

Ok we're ending the tape and the time is 12:50.

Per our conversation, I did a hearing on this woman today at the Snohomish Co Jail. During the course of the hearing she said on the record that she has been "stalked" by a counselor from Wa. Corrections Center for Women. She said this woman was her counselor there, and has continued to contact her and her family since her release. This woman now works at McNeil Island. Her name is Stephanie Aguirre.

According to Ms. [REDACTED] Counselor Aguirre has 3 children, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Her birthday is 2-21-65 and she just turned 41. Ms. [REDACTED] said she has proof of Ms. Aguirre's unwanted attention to include cards and letters. Counselor Aguirre caused Ms. [REDACTED] "girlfriend", [REDACTED] to lose her job in Ellensburg when she called the employer and told him of Ms. [REDACTED] sexual orientation. According to Ms. [REDACTED] Ms. Aguirre has promised to make her life "miserable".

Ms. [REDACTED] told me Counselor Aguirre has been to her mother's home as well as her aunt's home. The mother is [REDACTED] and she can be reached via cell phone at [REDACTED]. Her aunt, [REDACTED] has since moved to No. Carolina.

Ms. [REDACTED] testified that she was denied Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative treatment while in the institution, as Counselor Aguirre wanted her to remain in the unit where she could clean her office. Since her release she has seen Counselor Aguirre and she offered Ms. [REDACTED] drugs and alcohol.

Ms. [REDACTED] said Internal Affairs Officer, Steve Baxter called her home, but she would not talk to him.

All this information is on the tape of the hearing, and was witnessed by Community Corrections Officer Brenda Clark.

I will be completing my report on this hearing next week (but will not include this personnel information). The tape will be forwarded to the CRS at that time if you want to make a copy of it.

Ms. [REDACTED] told me she informed her Community Corrections Officer in Ellensburg of this harassment, but she would not give him the name of the employee as she wanted to wait until she got an attorney. There was nothing in the chronos which referred to this contact.

Subject: [REDACTED]

On 2-10-06 I contacted Ms. [REDACTED] at her home. She had been on abscond status since late September 2005. At that time she and [REDACTED] had just been given permission to ITR from Ellensburg to Everett. Prior CCO was Simon Barr. I asked [REDACTED] why she had not reported as directed by CCO Barr on 9-30-05 and she said "several reasons". I asked for more information and she informed me "she and [REDACTED] had been harassed and "stalked" by a CCO while in Purdy. She said she would not give me the name of the person who she was speaking of because she felt "all DOC employees stuck together and she was afraid of retaliation. She also informed me she had told CCO Barr all about it. I advised her no one could help her if she was not willing to file a report or at least contact someone in upper management in DOC. I also stated she had been living in Ellensburg for quite some time and if this event was so traumatic, how could she continue to report to CCO Barr. She informed me she had proof of the stalking and mentioned a letter, and some flowers.

I advised her to turn herself in and report the incident.

I called Steve Baxter on 2-21-06 at 360-725-8738 and informed him of the situation and he stated he had attempted to get this information from [REDACTED] and/or [REDACTED] for the past two years and they were unwilling to provide any names or dates for him. He stated he would try again and thanked me for reporting it and requested this e-mail

I do recall [REDACTED] telling me at one point that she'd gotten some emails from a counselor at the prison. [REDACTED] and the emails were sent to her home email address. I told [REDACTED] that if this were in fact true that she needed to speak with the internal investigations division at the prison this counselor worked out because this type of contact is not appropriate. I looked up that name and number and gave that to her. I don't recall if that persons was Steve Baxter or not. She said that she was going to be replying to one of the emails sent by this counselor indicating she (Christina) didn't want any further contact. If it persisted, [REDACTED] said she'd be contacting the prison. I also told [REDACTED] that if the contact continued that I would contact the prison for her. Follow up conversations with [REDACTED] indicated the contact had stopped. So there was no further follow up by myself in the matter. With [REDACTED] history of lying and manipulating I did not truly believe she was being contacted. My opinion was that she was telling me this in an attempt to not get a DOSA revocation on her violation process. Basically trying to make me believe that if she were to go back to prison, there was some counselor who would make her life miserable. Again, the alleged contact with this counselor had apparently stopped after our conversation so nothing further was done.

Please let me know if I can be of further assistance. Thank you.
