SYNOPSIS:

On June 26, 2006 The Washington Correction Center for Women (WCCW) Intelligence and Investigation Unit (IIU) received a report from Correctional Officer Heidi Easton whom was assigned hospital watch with Offender [REDACTED] on June 23, 2006. The report detailed Offender [REDACTED] allegations of sexual assault by Correctional Officer Willie Cobb in mid-April. Offender [REDACTED] also indicated to Officer Easton, in mid-April she was at Tacoma General Hospital undergoing a pelvic exam, at which time the attending physician (name unknown) discovered a condom inside of her. The doctor allegedly told Offender [REDACTED] that he would retain the condom in the event she decided to come forward and disclose the origination of the condom. (See Attachment 1)

A report from Officer Sophie Stiles was also received; in her report Officer Stiles states that she discovered an overdue library book notice address to Offender [REDACTED]. The book was titled, "After Silence: Rape and my Journey Back". Officer Stiles noted in her report that the check out date of the book is near the time when Offender [REDACTED] began going to the clinic for her extensive medical issues and massive bleeding from her genital area. (See Attachment 2)

NARRATIVE:

The following interviews were conducted during the course of this investigation.

Daanish Hoda, MD

On June 26, 2006 I met with Dr. Daanish Hoda, Medical Director at WCCW. Medical Director Christine Abby was also present during the interview. I gave a brief explanation of the reports I received to Dr. Hoda, he stated that Dr. Frank Kim of Tacoma General Hospital did in fact express concern for the trauma to Offender [REDACTED] vaginal area due to his suspicions of the offender inducing self harm in that area. Dr. Hoda offered to speak to Dr. Kim as well as the other outside providers that have treated Offender [REDACTED] regarding the condom that was allegedly discovered inside of her, but he feels positive that if something of that magnitude would have occurred, it would have been reported. Dr. Hoda said that he would e-mail me his findings.

In the afternoon of June 26, 2006 I received an e-mail from Dr. Hoda regarding his conversation with Dr. Kim. The e-mail stated that he spoke with Dr. Kim and he has heard nothing of Offender [REDACTED] reporting a sexual assault nor has he heard of a condom being discovered inside Offender [REDACTED]. Dr. Hoda wrote that Dr. Kim stated, he was sure if an Emergency Room Physician did discover something of the sort, that he/she would have contacted him or sent him a note, and performed a rape assessment as they are trained to do. (See Attachment 3)

Offender [REDACTED]

On June 30, 2006 I interviewed Offender [REDACTED] in the Mental Health Building. I asked Offender [REDACTED] if she has ever had any kind of encounter with Correctional Officer Cobb. Offender [REDACTED] stated that she and Officer Cobb did not get along. She stated that she thought Officer Cobb was rude and did not have any respect for women. I asked why she felt this way about Officer Cobb. Offender [REDACTED] stated that back in December when she was in the Receiving Unit, Officer Cobb escorted her and two other offenders (unidentified) to the clothing room. Offender [REDACTED] stated that the entire time he was assisting them with getting clothes he was rude and demeaning.

Offender [REDACTED] said as they were returning to their unit, she told Officer Cobb that he was rude and would not get respect from the women here. Offender [REDACTED] said Officer Cobb has always hated her since that incident.

I asked Offender [REDACTED] if she was trying on different size sweatshirts in front of Officer Cobb. She said she tried on different sizes, however she had a tee-shirt on under her sweatshirt and she had her back to the officer.

I asked Offender [REDACTED] if she told one of the officers manning her hospital watch that Officer Cobb had acted inappropriately with her while they were in the Clothing Room of Intake. Offender [REDACTED] admitted that she informed the officer that she did not care for Officer Cobb and vice versa, but at no time did she ever make any allegations sexual in nature about or toward Officer Cobb.

I informed Offender [REDACTED] that it was reported to me that she could prove that Officer Cobb had sexually assaulted her, because she was aware of some identifying marks on his body that "she should not know about". Offender [REDACTED] stated, "I never said that, true I can't stand the man, but I would never just make something like that up to get him in trouble."

I asked Offender [REDACTED] about a missing clothing room key that Officer Cobb allegedly had in his possession. Offender [REDACTED] stated that she did not know that for sure, but when she first went into Receiving there was a rumor amongst the inmates that Officer Cobb had an extra key for the clothing room, "but when we went back there he had the entire key ring".

I asked Offender [REDACTED] if Officer Cobb was ever assigned Hospital Watch while she was admitted. She stated, yes and she hated it when he had watch because they did not like each other and he was mean and rude to her. Offender [REDACTED] stated that one day Officer Cobb came in the hospital and relieved the off-going staff. Offender [REDACTED] said she made the comment, "Great this really makes my day." Officer Cobb allegedly responded by saying, "It should really make your day because I am here for two shifts."

I asked Offender [REDACTED] if she told one of the officers manning her hospital watch, that while at Tacoma General Hospital she underwent a pelvic examination at which time the doctor discovered a condom inside of her, and allegedly indicated that he would retain the condom in a safe place, in the event she decided to come forward and disclose how the condom got there. Offender [REDACTED] said, "No that is what the officer told me, she said that an inmate here at the prison went to the clinic for a pap-smear and they found a used condom that had been in there for like a month." I asked which officer had told her that. Offender [REDACTED] took a brief moment, appearing to recall the officers name and said, "Eastman or Easton, something like that."

Correctional Officer Heidi Easton

On July 14, 2006 Correctional Officer Heidi Easton was interviewed in the Officer's station in L-Unit. Clarification was sought regarding the Incident Report dated June 23, 2006 that she had written and submitted.

I asked Office Easton to briefly summarize the Incident report that she had written regarding Offender [REDACTED] and Officer Cobb. She stated that during the entire shift at the hospital, Offender [REDACTED] was, "telling some pretty tall stories". She stated that Offender [REDACTED] appeared very sedated through out the shift, as she would, at times begin a sentence and then just suddenly stop talking and gaze off or fall back asleep.

Officer Easton stated that Offender [REDACTED] began talking about an officer at WCCW that was rude and mean to her. Officer Easton said [REDACTED] never came right out and said who the officer was, however when Officer Easton asked, "Are you talking about Officer Cobb?" Offender [REDACTED] did not hesitate to respond by saying, "Yes". Officer Easton said that Offender [REDACTED] then went on to say that she was sexually assaulted by Officer Cobb in April when she was housed in the Receiving Unit. Offender [REDACTED] allegedly stated that Officer Cobb escorted her and two other offenders (unidentified) to the Intake Clothing Storage area at WCCW to exchange a few articles of State Issued Clothing. Offender [REDACTED] claims that Officer Cobb had her try on several different size shirts and "things just went from there".

I asked Officer Easton if she felt that Offender [REDACTED] was being sincere and honest in her accusations. Officer Easton stated that she takes all sexual related allegations seriously however considering the outlandish stories that she [REDACTED] had been telling up to that point, the fact that she admitted that she did not personally care for Officer Cobb, and the fact that Officer Cobb had been doing hospital watches to her dismay, Officer Easton stated that she truly felt that Offender [REDACTED] was making these allegations, hoping that she (Officer Easton) would contact the institution and report [REDACTED] claims so they would not assign Officer Cobb to another hospital watch with her.

I asked Officer Easton if at any time she discussed an incident that occurred at WCCW involving a condom being located inside of an offender while a pelvic exam was being conducted. Officer Easton stated that she did not discuss that incident with Offender [REDACTED] however [REDACTED] claimed something of the similar nature occurred to her while she was undergoing a pelvic exam at Tacoma General Hospital. Officer Easton stated that many of the accounts [REDACTED] recalled regarding her alleged incident were comparable to those of the incident that occurred at WCCW in which a condom was actually discovered by a physician conducting a pelvic exam. Officer Easton said that led her to believe that was the origin of Offender [REDACTED] story.

I asked Officer Easton if, in her own personal opinion, did she feel that Offender [REDACTED] was of sound mind and body when reporting the above events. Officer Easton again stated that [REDACTED] appeared to be highly sedated and was telling some "very off the wall stories that really didn't even make sense". Officer Easton again stated that she felt Offender [REDACTED] was making these allegations with diminished inhibitions due to prescribed medications, so that Officer Cobb would no longer be assigned hospital watch.

CONCLUSION:

Based on the information and evidence collected during the course of this investigation, the allegations of sexual assault initiated by Offender [REDACTED] can not be substantiated at this time.

Based on the testimony of the staff and offenders interviewed the following inconsistencies are noted:

- Offender [REDACTED] originally reported to Officer Easton on June 23, 2006 that the alleged incident that occurred in the Intake Clothing Room took place in mid-April
- During Offender [REDACTED]'s interview with Investigator Keller on June 30, 2006 Offender [REDACTED] stated that it was in December when she and two other offenders were escorted to the clothing room by Officer Cobb.
- Offender [REDACTED] denies making any of the allegations reported by Officer Heidi Easton on June 23, 2006.

I spoke with Dr. Frank Kim, the Urologist in Tacoma, and he says he has not heard anything to the fact that [REDACTED] reported sexual assault or that she told anyone else about it. He had not heard of the "condom" story either. He was sure that if an Emergency Room physician did see something he/she would have called me or sent a note, and done a rape assessment as they are trained to do.

Subject: Allegations of sexual assault

On 06/26/06 WCCW IIU received a report from an Officer that was assigned Hospital watch with Offender [REDACTED] dated 6/23/06. The following allegations were detailed in the report:

Offender [REDACTED] stated that she was sexually assaulted by an officer at WCCW in April while she was in the Receiving Unit. She stated the Officer escorted her and (2) other offenders (unidentified) to exchange some clothing in the intake clothing area. Offender [REDACTED] claims that the officer had her try on several different shirt sizes and "things went from there" Offender [REDACTED] claimed she would have no problems proving these allegations as she could identify marks on the officer's body that she should not know about. [REDACTED] alleges a key to the intake clothing room is missing and the officer in question has possession of it.

Offender [REDACTED] stated she was taken to Tacoma General Hospital in the middle of April and while under going a pelvic exam, the physician found a condom inside her" Offender [REDACTED] stated that the doctor told her that he would keep the condom secure for her if she decided to report how it got there. (no medical outings are noted in the month of April on the offenders movement scene)

Offender [REDACTED] stated that on another occasion while undergoing a pelvic exam, Dr. Kim (Tacoma General) inquired about [REDACTED] being sexually assaulted stating, "she is pretty torn up inside"

On 06/26/06 WCCW IIU received a report from the officer assigned to the WCCW Case Observation Area (COA) which is where Offender [REDACTED] often housed. The report dated 06/25/06 detailed the following:

The COA Officer discovered an overdue notice from the WCCW Library regarding a book that was checked out by Offender [REDACTED]. The book was titled "After Science: Rape and my Journey Back". The officer noted that the check date of the book is near the time when Offender [REDACTED] began coming to the clinic for her extensive medical issues and massive bleeding from the genitalia area.

On 06/26/06 I spoke with Christina Abby, Medical Director at WCCW and Dr. Hoda, Physician at WCCW and explained the reports that I received to them. Dr. Hoda stated that Dr. Kim of Tacoma General did express concern for trauma to Offender [REDACTED]'s vaginal area as he is suspicious that she is causing self harm in that area due to the continued high volume of bleeding. Dr. Hoda said that we would speak with Dr. Kim and the other outside physicians that have seen Offender [REDACTED] regarding the alleged condom found inside of her, but is positive if something of that magnitude would have occurred it would have been reported. Dr. Hoda said that he would e-mail me his findings.

Please advise of PREA intention
